

MRJ 42ND BIENNIAL CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS

A definite highlight for the 100+ delegates, spouse, and guests who attended MRJ's 42nd Biennial Convention in New Orleans was the opportunity to spend a day at Kingsley

House, New Orleans's oldest half way house. Brotherhood leaders from throughout North America engaged in a variety of 'roll-up-your-sleeve' projects.

And a special treat for young and old alike were the MRJ Clowns Peanuts ( alias Sandy Breslauer) and her partner Popcorn ( alias Steve Breslauer, past Honary National NFTB President)

Adrian Todd, Associate Director of Programs at Kingsley House presenting Appreciation Certificates to MRJ officers (I, MRJ President John Shalett, Adrian, Immediate Past President Aaron Bloom, Executive Director Doug Barden, and First VP Hon. Ira Warshawsky)
